

GOOD CROWD HEARS BLACK

Governor Holds His Crowd for More Than Hour and Half in Spite of the Hot Weather.

Gov. James D. Black addressed the voters of this county at the Court House yesterday afternoon in the interest of his candidacy for the Democratic nomination in August. He was introduced in a neat speech by County Attorney W. A. Samuels. The weather was exceedingly warm but he held his audience which, by the way, was larger than either Col. Denhardt or Judge Carroll had, for nearly an hour and thirty minutes. He was frequently applauded and there was more real enthusiasm shown than at any political meeting here this year. In a straightforward manner he explained his position on many important matters. His explanation of the writing of the much talked about L. & N. R. R. letter was well received and it is not thought by his friends that this letter will hurt him in this county. He said he could explain why Squire Turner, of the Sentinel-Democrat, of this city said in its last issue that on account of the L. & N. R. R. letter that Governor Black should not make the race as it would prove hurtful to the Democratic party, both in the state and nation. Governor Black recalled the fact that he was the man who had charge of the campaign of Mr. Turner's father when he ran and was elected to Congress and recited how he had worked for him and how he regretted that now the son of his old friend should go into the camp of his enemy and said he believed it was for the reason that Judge C. C. Turner, of Frankfort, and a brother of the editor of the Sentinel-Democrat had been promised a job in case Judge Carroll was nominated, or at least it was so rumored in Frankfort. He also said he regretted that the friendship of a lifetime should be so easily broken. He asserted he was the one man now running who could defeat Ed. Morrow and called attention to the fact that the Republican state papers were continually saying to discourage his friends that he was getting weaker in the mountains; that this was absolutely untrue and that his following was increasing rather than decreasing.

He said that the various matters at Frankfort were receiving his attention and that the Harkness and Bingham tax suits would be carefully looked after, as well as the investigations of the charitable and other institutions and promised that wherever anything wrong had been done that the guilty would be punished. He touched on the tax law which is the paramount issue in this county and promised that such relief as could fairly be given the farmer and land owner would be recommended by him to the next Legislature. This statement brought forth a thunder of applause. A large number of people crowded forward to shake hands with him after his speech and many voters discussed the rumor current at Frankfort that the Governor means to make radical changes in the State Board of Control, the School Book Commission and possibly the State Tax Commission and that this action will be followed up with new appointments of approved merit and a complete sweep among the political employees at the prisons, insane asylums, etc., putting in only men of merit and experience.

PRICE OF CATTLE OFF

Nice Run on the Market, But Mountain Traders lose Money by Slump in Prices.

Fully 2,000 head of cattle on hand, plenty of buyers for cows and heifers at a price $2.00 per hundred less than last court day. Very few buyers for steers, but one buyer for high-class cattle, Prewitt Vanmeter, of Winchester, who bought about 60 head; 36 fine 800-lb 2-year-old black steers at the top price of the day, 11½ cents, the other 25 head about same weight, but not so good quality for which he paid 10 cents per pound. Up to 3 P. M. the yards were full of cattle. The mountain men, hating to sell them for less money than they paid for them in the mountains. The slump was caused by decline in prices in the cities on fat cattle. The prices quoted below will give a fair estimate.

mate of the drop in prices since last court:

George Hunt bought 24 cows (mixed) at 6¾ cents.

Coon Allen, 50 yearlings, 400-lb steers, at 10 cents.

Mike Wilson, 11 heifers at 9¾ cents.

Thirty head of steers and heifers to Ed. Lawrence at 10 cents.

Allie Kearns, 10 cows at 7 cents.

Wade and Ervin, 12 cows at 6¾ cents.

H. C. Herman, 6 small steers at $25.

J. H. Day, 20 500-lb heifers at 9½ cents.

Smallest crowd for many moons, worst court day for months, the farmers all being busy plowing corn and tobacco, both of which look well and are well advanced for the season.

A car load of horses from Indiana, about half of which were crippled on trip here, sold for about $50 average. The unhurt ones from $100 to $200.

Very little other stock on hand.

HOSPITAL CONTRACT LET.

The building committee of the Mary Chiles Hospital have let the contract to remodel the old Bigstaff residence and to build the additions to same to contractor A. E. Lawrence, who will at once start the work and rush same through to completion as rapidly as possible. The plans were donated by Webber & Webber, of Cincinnati, and it is claimed that when completed we will have as modern a hospital as could be found anywhere. The location is a splendid one and those in charge of this work deserve the thanks of the entire community for their efforts. Judge R. H. Winn and Mr. R. G. Kern compose the building committee.

Saturday Mr. Mart Wells was bitten on the right hand by a dog. The occurrence happened at the cattle pens and he is now suffering considerably from it.

EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION TO MEET IN LOUISVILLE

The annual convention of the Kentucky Educational Association will be held in Louisville, June 23, 24, 25, and 26, 1919. In order that the teachers in our county may take advantage of the reduced railroad fare, Prof. R. E. Williams, Secretary of the Kentucky Educational Association, requests that the following information be given the teachers:

Louisville, Ky., June 19.—Teachers attending the Kentucky Educational Association convention in Louisville, beginning June 23, will be granted one and one-third fare for the round trip, providing they follow these conditions:

When they leave home they must buy a ticket to Louisville and pay full fare. They must take a receipt for this ticket. After they get to Louisville presentation of this receipt to Prof. Williams and endorsement by him, will enable them to secure a ticket back home for one-third fare.

The railroad administration has wired positively that this is the only way teachers can secure the reduced fare to and from the Louisville convention.

Any member of the Kentucky Educational Association is entitled to secure this reduced fare in this way, whether he is a teacher or not.

JOINT DEBATE AT CHAUTAUQUA

Great American Leaders to Discuss Gov't Ownership of Railroads.

EVENT OF THE FOURTH NIGHT

Dr. Charles Zueblin Will Take the Affirmative Side and Hon. Leslie M. Shaw the Negative.

Hon. Leslie M. Shaw, secretary of the treasury in the cabinet of President Roosevelt and twice governor of Iowa, will debate on the fourth night of the coming Redpath Chautauqua with Charles Zueblin, well-known writer and lecturer on national and international problems, the great subject of Government Ownership of Railroads. Mr. Zueblin will speak for government ownership and Mr. Shaw will take the negative side.

Everyone is thinking of the course the United States is to pursue with the railroads. The people must decide

Farmers and bluegrass seed men have begun stripping the seed last week and strippers are running in every section. The indications do not point to a very large crop this year, the rainy season causing the undergrowth and weeds to get such a start that much of the seed will be lost. The seed has ripened rapidly and there will be a good yield per acre. Hands are high and scarce, but the prices for seed are reported at from $1.50 to $1.65 per bu. It is stated that one grower sold all his holdings of seed amounting to several acres to Henry S. Caywood, of Bourbon county, at $1.50 per bushel.

Some folks are willing to dance to the music, but feel like lynching the fiddler when he pushes his hat for pay.

BOYS BEAT FARMERS

Last year the reports from boys in the Corn Club showed their average yield per acre was 53.44 bushels. The average for the farmers of the State was 31 bushels per acre. Taylor Smith, of Garrard, produced 135 bushels and Roy Steele, of Crestwood, shucked 109 bushels and 90 pounds per acre. It is evident the boys beat the farmers.

this great question and in putting on this debate the Redpath is fulfilling the high mission of the Chautauqua as a public forum for the free discussion of great problems.

The speakers in the debate have been chosen by the Chautauqua management for their comprehensive expert knowledge of the entire matter and also their ability as public speakers. Mr. Shaw and Mr. Zueblin will discuss the question from every angle in an authoritative manner and then having heard both sides of the question, people will be more able to arrive at a just and fair conclusion on this important problem.

Mr. Shaw is known as one of the leaders of conservative thought in financial and governmental spheres. Not only was he secretary of the treasury under Roosevelt and governor of Iowa but he has been president of two great banking institutions, the Carnegie Trust Co. of New York and the First Mortgage Guarantee & Trust Co. of Philadelphia. In 1898 he was made permanent chairman of the International Monetary Commission.

Mr. Shaw brings to his discussion of the negative side of the question of government ownership of railroads a life-long experience as a successful business man, a keen-thinking lawyer and an accomplished speaker. He will admirably state the case of those who believe that government has no place in conducting the railroads.

Charles Zueblin has studied national and international problems all his life. He is known as an effective and eloquent exponent of democracy in the broad sense of that word. To him democracy means the life of all by the co-operation of all for the welfare of all.

For sixteen years he was a member of the University of Chicago Extension staff, lecturing on civic and moral questions. He is the author of a number of books on social problems, among them being "Democracy and the Overman," "The Religion of a Democrat," "American Municipal Progress."

A big new discovery in cigarette blending

The big thing about Chesterfields is their unique blend. The Chesterfield blend is an entirely new combination of tobaccos. It is a most important development in cigarette making.

As a result, Chesterfields deliver a new kind of cigarette enjoyment — just like a "bite" before bedtime when you're hungry — they SATISFY!

It took the finest selections of TURKISH and DOMESTIC tobaccos and no end of skill and patient experiment to get this blend right.

Was it worth it? Say — just smoke a Chesterfield fresh from the moisture-proof package. You'll say it was worth it, all right!

Albert Botts sold last week to Messrs. Greene and Mason, of Grassy Lick, this county, his fast four-year-old trotter, Main Albert, for a price of $700 cash. This horse was sired by Mainleaf, 2:08 3/4, and is out of Emorette, by Gambetta Wilkes, being one of the best bred ones in the country. He is now in the stable of Charles W. Bean at the Montgomery County Fair Grounds, and will make his initial start at the Fair here in July. Main Albert has a world of speed, in plain English is a speed marvel, and after a few weeks of training has gone a mile around 2:20, with a half in 1:06 1/2, and it is freely predicted that he will trot in 2:10 or better this fall. Here's hoping that our young friends may reap several thousand dollars for their fast horse.

WEDDING AS WRITTEN BY CIRCUS PUBLICITY MAN (Cartoons Magazine)

Last night, at the glittering and gorgeous home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Hicks, 999 Ninth Place, Miss Mary Gladys Hicks and Mr. Adelbert Smithers, were united in the sensational, awe-inspiring bonds of matrimony. The wedding service was pronounced by the Spiritually and Right Reverend Doctor Morton S. Duds, rector of the exceptionally and exceedingly exclusive Saint Croesus-in-the-Fields.

The bride entered upon the massive, muscular and marvelously moulded arm of her father, passing through an avenue of the largest longest and latitudinest tropic palms in captivity, while the air about was heavy with the shimmering, seething scent of spring ranged in racy and rollicking array about the handsome and harmonious Hicks home. An orchestra of four—count them!—clever, comic and delightfully daring musicians, supplied the mushy melodious music to which the bridal party modestly and morally marched. The grand gigantic and brobian groomsman accompanied by his bald, brave best man, Mr. W. Percy Smithers, awaited them at the improvised, but otherwise, faultless altar.

See the solemnly spectacular meeting of the bride and groom! See the merry and meritorious mad of honor! See the four—count them!—beauteous, beaming and brilliant bridesmaids. See the innocent, infantile, infinitesimal flower girl, Miss Teenie Hicks, in her fearless, fascinating, but foolish act of scattering fair, freakish and fragrant flowers in the path of her sister, the bride! See them ALL! They are ALL INCLUDED, all under one roof! One invitation, remember, admits to them all, including the concert after the wedding!

The bride was attired in a silvery and silken something of extreme simplicity, surmounted by a vaporous veil, fastened to her polished

Why Suffer?

Mrs. J. A. Cox, of Alderson, W. Va., writes: "My daughter... suffered terribly. She could not turn in bed... the doctors gave her up, and we brought her home to die. She had suffered so much at... time. Having heard of Cardui, we got it for her."

"In a few days, she began to improve," Mrs. Cox continues, "and had no trouble at... Cardui cured her, and we sing its praises everywhere." and perfumed hair with the bursting, emblazoning blossoms of the orange. Elsewhere upon her proud but in no sense ponderous person was a slick, showy and scintillating diamond and bedazzling sunburst, the graceful gift of the generous and godlike groom. And remember—EVERYTHING AB-SO-LUTE-LY NEW!

After the affecting and effective ceremony, a real, roaring reception was held, fun ferociously fast taking the place of rigid and rigorous restraint in the precious and palatial Hicks parlors. See the sinuous smiles tripping through the torrents of tears! Witness the cute, cunning and comedy kisses! Hear the conglomerate and contradictory congratulations. Hear the silly and simian simpers! See the flippant and frumpish friends of the family! Listen to the glorious gurgles of the able and absolutely alcoholic punch! And RE-MEM-BER—ONE INVITATION ADMITS TO ALL!

The bride was the radiant, enraptured recipient of a superbly great and indescribably glorious, glittering and gorgeous galaxy of gifts, the presents being under the shrewd, sharp and singularly all-seeing eye of a pompous and private detective. A supper, the most stupendous, sensational and superlatively complete ever served in any land, was spread in the draped and dainty dining room by a cool, keen and calculating caterer.

THE GRAND EXIT! At eleven o'clock, amid scenes of astounding and unparalleled impertinence, and a hellish, inhuman hail of ancient and antiquated shoes, mixed and mingled with ribald rice, the young couple left on a desperately dangerous and delightfully demonstrative bridal tour. They will be gone three—count them!—weeks.

THE RECORD EDITORIAL

The Sentinel-Democrat does us the honor to reproduce in its last issue, an editorial from the Shelbyville Record, taking us to task for suggesting that Judge Henry Hines and men of his type be eliminated from public office and asks us if "that which worries you most now is that Hines isn't for Denhart, isn't it?"

So far as we are aware, the Record is the only paper which has taken issue with us, while many have endorsed our suggestion. This attitude of the Record may be explained by the fact that Mr. Ed. Shinnick, its editor, is Secretary of the Prison Board of which Judge Hines is Chairman. The elimination of Judge Hines would likely cut off his defender from the public trough and therein lies the rub.

As all fairminded readers know the Advocate has never been a supporter of Col. Denhardt, neither has it expressed a preference for Gov. Black or Judge Carroll, feeling that either of them is vastly superior to Mr. Morrow, from any viewpoint. Col. Denhardt has, however, advocated many splendid reforms and his candidacy, though short, has redounded to the general good.

The Advocate wants to see the Democratic ticket win and is concerned more in principles and policies, than in individuals. It favors a clean, capable and courageous ticket; a complete housecleaning at Frankfort, including a re-organization of the State Tax Commission; State Prison Board; School Book Commission; the elimination of useless offices; the dismissal of pet attorneys in the Bingham tax suit; a re-hearing of the Harkness case; the repeal or substantial modification of our present Jesse James Tax Law and many other reforms which will benefit the people and about which something will appear in these columns, from time to time. In its efforts to accomplish some, if not all, of these things, it is actuated solely by a desire to render, if it can, a public service.

ACT QUICKLY, MR. GOVERNOR

Governor Black's future is in his own hands, and by an inexorable chain of events the opportunity to do something for Kentucky that will arouse this State from one end to the other rests with the man who has recently taken the oath as Governor of Kentucky.

The Evening Post does not propose to argue the expediency from a political standpoint of the radical policies that is now asserted with confidence by friends of Mr. Black the latter is about to inaugurate. That seems, indeed, so obvious that it is unnecessary to discuss it. If Mr. Black acts, words from Mr. Morrow about "what I will do" will fall upon deaf ears. Frenzied appeals to right the wrong, or alleged wrong, of 1915 will go unheeded by men who are more interested in 1919 and 1920 than in what a defeated candidate claims was done in 1915.

But it is the opportunity for the whole State that really appeals to us. "The time is ripe and rotten ripe for change." There are a number of men now holding political offices in this State who should be separated from those offices. There are old policies that should be abandoned and new policies that should be inaugurated and penal and charitable institutions that need the touch of a new hand.

The whole State of Kentucky is crying out for leadership. Heretofore it has been difficult under any circumstances to induce the people of Kentucky to talk and think about their State government, except in the way of criticism, but, if Mr. Black acts with the energy and decision that is predicted for him, the State will be "interested" all right.

Nor is this all. The list of candidates for the minor offices is not yet made up. A bold policy by the Governor may so transform the situation that strong candidates may come out. The Governor should act and act quickly.—Louisville Post.

JUDGE A. A. HAZELRIGG

Authority has been given us by Judge A. A. Hazelrigg to announce him as a Democratic candidate for City Attorney at the approaching August primary.

It would be a waste of words for us to dwell at length upon his fitness for the place or upon his high character as a citizen. He is too well known to our readers and as proof that we entertain a high opinion of him, last week we expressed the hope that he would have no opposition in either the primary or regular election.

WILL NOT BE BOSSSED.

My announcement which has appeared in divers papers gives my platform. In a meeting of a few ne-publicans who arrogated to themselves leadership held a meeting in Louisville to which meeting the various candidates, barring myself, were invited. It appears from reports that the candidates gave way to these bosses, allowing them to name as a candidate Mr. Eversole, of Hazard. Now I want to say to my constituency that there is a statutory provision for a primary election applying to all parties to settle the matter as to who their candidate shall be, this law has been ignored as I understand it and as to my own race I shall appeal to the people, for the bosses cannot crack their whip over me and compel me into their ways. I appeal to the great common people and shall be satisfied only by their votes. As before stated and in my card of announcement I will get into as many counties and before as many of the voters as it is possible for me to do so without neglecting too greatly my cropping interests. Again I would have my friends know that I will not be choked off by combines or a minimized clique such as sometimes creep into the party for selfish ends. I have many letters from various parts of this R. R. district urging me to stand by my rights and my purpose is to stay before the people who by their acts August 2nd will determine whether they, the masses or the few bosses shall rule. For this very principle battles have been waged across the seas and our leaders at this very time are entering into peace negotiations for world-wide settlements. The people must rule. To my friends and the voters generally I want to say that I hereby emphasize state and nation-wide prohibition, and woman's right to suffrage. I am going to win this nomination. I am going to be elected R. R. Commissioner and will make an official whose acts will be approved by the people.

CANCER CLAIMS VICTIM

Mr. E. M. Barnes, aged 45, familiarly called "Coley" by his many relatives and friends, died at his home in the county Friday from cancer of the liver. Mr. Barnes had only recently been operated on at a Lexington hospital in the hope that his life could be saved but the operation was in vain as the disease had made too great inroads upon his system.

A man of genial disposition with a pleasant smile and word for everyone he will be sadly missed by all who knew him. He is survived by one brother and a large circle of relatives.

KAPLAN SHOWS COMING.

The Kaplan Shows will be here for one week beginning Monday, June 30, as will be seen from an advertisement appearing in this issue. This company claims they have nothing but clean, moral shows that every member of one's family may attend without the slightest embarrassment.

COSTLY RIDE

Saturday night a week ago Taylor Curry, a young farmer, brought his family to our city and left his car near the Tabb Opera House. After the performance he discovered his car had been taken by some one and at once reported the occurrence to Chief of Police James C. Tipton, who began an investigation, resulting in the arrest of James Plick, Woodman Crockett, Bruce Mulligan and Emil Dillon, all young white men, of the county.

Monday at the trial before County Judge E. W. Senff it developed that the young men had gone to Lexington in Mr. Curry's car and had met with an accident on their return, causing considerable damage to the car. The defendants were required to pay Mr. Curry his entire damage, amounting to one hundred and thirty-odd dollars and a fine of fifty dollars and costs.

The practice of taking cars and driving them without the owner's consent has become rather a common practice in many places and Judge Senff announced that it would not be tolerated here and that violations of this law would be severely punished.

REPUBLICANS CANNOT AGREE

The Republicans cannot agree on a "hand-picked" candidate for R. R. Commissioner in the Third district, although the "powers that be" have had a meeting at Louisville since the Republican convention at Lexington. It is understood that a number of candidates met at Louisville last Tuesday and agreed that John B. Eversole was the logical man for the place and that Messrs. S. O. Wood, of this city; William C. Black, of Barbourville, and possibly other candidates agreed to withdraw in his favor, however it is reported that some of the announced candidates were not invited to the "pow-wow" and have since signified their intention of running the race on out in spite of the recommendation of Morrow, Searcy, Hert, Garrett and others, claiming there has been too much "bossism" shown already. The Lexington Leader Sunday had a picture of Mr. Eversole with a sketch of his life, etc., and stated that he had been agreed upon but in another column edited by R. Lee Davis, he stated that Mr. E. C. Kash, of Jackson resented the report that he had withdrawn and stated that he would run the race out. It is also stated that Mr. Clay Cisco, of this county, who is widely connected throughout the mountains, has said that he was in to the finish. Many warm friends here of Editor Stanley O. Wood, both Democratic and Republican, regret to see this ambitious young Republican mistreated by the party he and his family has served so long. But what was it the late Judge Jewell said of politics??

GARAGE OWNER

ENTERS PROTEST

Since our publication last week of an article on the useless noises made by motorists which article was contributed by one who has suffered from the noises, we have had a garage owner to take exception to our article, saying that he thought we were too severe on the garage owners as they were not responsible for all the noise made by automobiles. We do not claim the garage owners are responsible for all the noises, but we do claim that whenever a man drives up in front of the garage and a mechanic from the garage comes out, races the engine with the cut-out open, or tests the claxon horn, he is breaking the law and should be compelled to take the machine into his place of business before making the life of the surrounding public miserable. During the services at the Methodist Church Sunday, June 8, the minister was forced to stop three times and finally a member of the church went out and requested an automobile owner to please keep his machine quiet long enough for the church service to be concluded. Motorists have a habit of driving up in front of places of business (and not garages only) and blowing the horn for the clerk, while others drive all over the city with the cut-out open. We have no desire to be unduly critical of the garage owners as we know they cannot control the action of those who drive up in front of their places or of those who are driving out of the garages, however we do think that the police of the city should give this matter better attention than has been given it in the past, that a long suffering public may have the peace and quietude to which they are entitled. While we are on the subject of the automobile we might also say the law with reference to a child under sixteen years of age driving an automobile is being violated here every day. The people who run their cars here with the cut-out open ALWAYS, close them when in Lexington. Mr. officer, what about it? We shall have more to say on this subject from time to time.

STRENGTH OF THE WANT AD

The want-ad page of a newspaper is a creation of modern times. It is purely American. Nothing at all similar to or suggestive of it in tale or history or print of any kind appeared prior to the publication of the American daily newspaper. The Des Moines Tribune, some time ago, contained some interesting facts and wise observations concerning this light of potential agency in modern affairs, the want-ad; "James Gordon Bennett, the elder, invented the want-ad," says the Tribune. "In the older days it was generally used to locate lost people or lost articles, or to secure help or positions. The want-ad has grown with the years as much as any part of newspapering until today it covers a wide field and is used for almost every form of advertising known. The latest patron of the want-ad is the United States. The Government has found that the most effective way to recruit the army and navy departments is to use the want-ad. The only method of securing applicants which the department finds more effective than the usual colored posters is the newspaper want-ads. After resorting to every other means of attracting the attention of the young man, Uncle Sam says, 'that about the only kind of advertising he needs to pay for is the newspaper want-ads.'"

It is interesting to watch the development of a method of doing business. From the little personals James Gordon Bennett devised has come a new general market place. Everything under the sun is traded and sold in the want-ad pages of a newspaper. The newspaper that has the want-ad supremacy of a locality is a veritable trading station. Moreover, the want-ad page is a most interesting page to read. There is a great deal of human interest in the countless bargains offered. There is some pathos, some pure fun and some deviltry. Human nature is seen in many guises. The intelligent reader never misses the want-ads.

Specialists from all portions of the U. S. lately visited the wheat fields in Illinois near East St. Louis. These fields have been ruined by a foreign disease commonly known as "take all." This same trouble has been found in Indiana so the farmers in Kentucky should watch their wheat fields for diseased plants. "Take All" stunts the plant. The leaves become much darker than healthy leaves. The stalks are often rotted at the base and become brown or gray-black. Diseased plants often produce shoots which have leaves that are much narrower than the first set. At times the whole plant dies leaving patches which are quite noticeable. When not badly diseased a plant may produce jointed stems and some heads; but the heads do not fill properly. The farmer who thinks he has this disease in his fields, should mail the injured plants to the Experiment Station at Lexington.

"THE KENTUCKY"

The next battleship to be built for the United States navy will bear the name Kentucky. This announcement was made by Assistant Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt. When the new superdreadnaught the keel of which likely will be laid within a few months, is christened, the old battleship Kentucky, now far behind the times as an efficient fighting machine, will be relegated to the navy's scrap heap. According to the plans of the Navy Department the proposed new battleship Kentucky will be the most formidable and best equipped man of war afloat.

LIBRARY HAS REST ROOM

Rest rooms for the women, who come to town to shop, are developing very rapidly in many portions of Kentucky. Henderson County has one which has been offered by the Henderson Public Library. This room is already furnished with comfortable arm chairs, a large table which can be turned into a lunch table at the noon hour, and is equipped with a gas stove for demonstration purposes. If this move is a success and becomes popular with the country women, Rest Room plans will be made on a larger scale.

NO COMFORT HERE

The Democrat is not one of those so-called Democratic papers which attack democratic candidates. Whatever the shortcomings of a democratic administration, it is so far superior to anything the republicans have produced or can produce that there is no comparison. Ed. Morrow on a prohibition, reform, economy platform is a joke. The republican platform denouncing a democrat's pardon record, when the last republican governor pardoned the whole kit's crew convicted of a Governor's assassination, except the one hand-picked "goat," is not only a joke but an affront to the intelligence of Kentucky voters. The republicans will get no comfort from us. We are going to tell what we think of them, and tell it straight. Cynthia Democrat.

A DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

There is some talk of a democratic convention before the August primary to adopt a platform. Judge Carroll, gubernatorial candidate, has favored the project for some time. Some of the other leaders are said to favor it and it may materialize.

But it won't in any respect resemble the late republican convention. If it is held, the platform will be adopted by the delegates, not a few bosses from Covington and Louisville, as was the case with the republican affair. And a few bosses from Covington and Louisville will not name a ticket to be rammed down the voters' throats, as was the case in the republican convention. No candidates will be named at all. The democratic voters will do that at the polls in August.

That republican platform was a daisy. So ignorant were the designers, or so careless or indifferent, that they advocated the passage of an act already in force. Little things like that made no difference to men out solely for the offices. Didn't you recognize the crowd at the convention? Were any of the old-time trough-feeders absent? How the internal revenue men and postmasters out of a job licked their chops and howled! Thought they scented fresh pickings.

And then that plank advocating the election of judges on a "non-partisan" ticket! Wouldn't that jar you? Did you ever hear of republicans in the minority in a state, with no chance whatever to elect judges in any number, that were not in favor of a "non-partisan" judiciary? Never. Nothing in the world but a thin camouflage to hide the grab for office. From the time of the Hayes-Tilden "non-partisan" commission to this good day, non-partisanship has meant only a republican opportunity to slip into office where they had no chance in a straight party fight. None of this "non-partisan" judiciary for us. There is no complaint of partisanship on the part of any judge in Kentucky. No state can show a finer judiciary. The people demand no change, and the democratic convention would commit a suicidal blunder to fall into this republican trap.

All or none for us. If the republicans can beat us let them have the judges and whatever else they can get—but don't go out and hand them a club to beat us over the head.—Cynthia Democrat.

HERE'S PROOF

A Mt. Sterling Citizen Tells of His Experience.

You have a right to doubt statements of people living far away but can you doubt Mt. Sterling endorsement?

Read it:

R. J. Thomas, 47 Harrison street, Mt. Sterling, says: "I am glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills for what they have done for me. I was troubled with kidney complaint and my back, limbs and body ached and pained me. I felt weak and worn out. My kidneys were irregular in action too. I read of Doan's Kidney Pills and bought some from Duerson's Drug Store. This medicine soon had me feeling like a different person. The backaches left me and the action of my kidneys was regular."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Thomas had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

FORGET IT!

If you see a good fellow ahead of the crowd,
A leader of men, marching fearless and proud,
And you know of a tale whose mere telling aloud
Would cause his proud head to in anguish he bowed,
It's a pretty good plan to forget it.

If you know of a skeleton hidden away
In a closet, and guarded and kept from the day,
In the dark, and whose showing, whose sudden display
Would cause grief and sorrow and lifelong dismay,
It's a pretty good plan to forget it.

If you know of a spot in the life of a friend,
(We all have such spots concealed, world without end),
Whose touching his heartstrings would play on and rend,
Till the shame of its showing no grieving could mend,
It's a pretty good plan to forget it.

If you know of a thing, just the least little sin,
Whose telling would cork up a laugh or a grin
Of a man you don't like, for the Lord's sake, keep it in!
Don't be a knocker; right here stick a pin—
It's a pretty good plan to forget it.

He who wills to be virtuous is already so, for vice and virtue both reside in the purpose and are instantaneous in the power of choice.

People are always willing to do you a favor when they know that you do not need it.

There are so many people in the world who like a free ride that it is hard to judge a man's popularity by the length of his funeral procession.

Gold is as worthless as lead in the realm of love, for love is a delirium that may be caught but never bought.

A COUNTRY PAPER

One of the most notable facts connected with a country newspaper of today is the large increase in the amount of advertising of local business houses. The change has taken place gradually during the past year or so. It is highly significant and an inquiry as to the cause of it is of great profit, not only to those in newspaper business, but to every citizen of our town as well. The change, in brief, means that local merchants have found it necessary to call attention to their goods because of the immense competition they face, the most deadly element of which is that from the large stores of the large cities. These great establishments advertise their wares most lavishly and the metropolitan newspapers which contain their advertisements are distributed over the country, some one paper of which enters into nearly every home. The result is that these metropolitan establishments have built up an immense mail trade. In our town and indeed in most of the towns hereabouts, there is no occasion for this out-of-town buying. The duty of citizens in the matter is plain, and where other things are equal support should be given local dealers. Our merchants have invested their capital, have erected buildings, which are the pride of the city, and have established concerns, which are almost metropolitan in character. They have built up our little city, and it is only a fair return that they have the city's trade to turn trade otherwise, ever in the line of little purchases, which are great in the aggregate, is to invite the decline of property values in our city.

PUPILS VISIT STATION

The Experiment Station at Lexington was visited on May 22nd by 25 boys and girls from the Georgetown High School. This class in agriculture was delighted to have an opportunity to see what was being done at the Station.

Take all the little troubles out of the world and there would be some mighty lonesome people looking at the sky.

FROM CHERRY-BLOSSOM LAND

The Japanese Give Good Example

It is a proverb of Cherry Blossom Land that beauty of face and figure depend on womanly health.

What is it that makes our American women often pale, sallow-faced, with dark circles under the eyes, and very often old at forty-five when they should be in their prime?

Women suffer in girlhood from backache, spine-ache and headaches, followed by irregularities and as a result diseases of the womanly organs are more common than any one but a physician in active practice could suppose.

After long experience in the treatment of women's diseases, Dr. Pierce evolved a vegetable tonic and corrective which he called Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This is a purely vegetable preparation, without a particle of alcohol contained in it.

When a woman complains of backache, dizziness or pain—when everything looks black before her eyes—a dragging feeling, or bearing-down, with nervousness, she should turn to this "temperance" herbal tonic. It can be obtained in almost every drug store in the land and the ingredients are printed in plain English on the wrapper. Put up in tablets or liquid. Dr. Pierce, of Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., will send a trial size of the tablets for ten cents.

LONG TIME LOANS

We are making long time loans at a low rate of interest to farmers on easy terms, whereby the borrower is given the privilege of paying off all or any part of his loan at any time he chooses.

These loans are split up into equal payments and a small amount of the principal is paid each year; the borrower thus retiring his loan gradually, and in a few years he has paid it all off.

We can save you money in interest and insure you against being called on to pay off your loan when times are hard.
